

Notice of Availability of Required Disclosure Information

Nevada Career Institute (NCI) must annually distribute to all enrolled students a notice of the availability of the information required to be disclosed pursuant to the Higher Education Act.

The following information describes where prospective and enrolled students may easily access these disclosures on the NCI website, and, if applicable, indicates when separate notices for the information are provided to students.

Please note that a paper copy of any of the disclosures described below can be requested through the registrar.

(1) Financial assistance available to students enrolled at NCI can be found at:

<http://nevadacareerinstitute.com/financial-aid>

Additional details about Financial Aid can be found in the NCI catalog, available here:
